Il divano Weekend si contraddistingue per la morbidezza della seduta, il doppio strato che permette differenti combinazioni di tessuto e le forme essenziali, ma senza dubbio accoglienti e familiari. Le gambe ‘tubolari’ incorniciano la struttura evidenziando il contrasto tra la compostezza della seduta e la confortevole cuscinatura dello schienale e del bracciolo.

The Weekend sofa stands out for the softness of the seat, and the double layer that permits different combinations of fabric. Its forms are simple, but also welcoming and familiar. The tubular legs frame the structure, bringing out the contrast between the aplomb of the seat and the relaxed comfort of the back and armrest cushions.
